
Assisted and Productive Voluntary Return Project (PREVAP)

Do you want to return to your country?

If your migration project in Spain has not been as you expected and you want to start a new chapter in your country of origin, the International Organization for Migration (IOM) in Spain can help you return to your country of origin in a dignified, safe and orderly manner.

The Assisted and Productive Voluntary Return Project is aimed to migrants who are not nationals of any European Union country, who have been in Spain for at least six months and who voluntarily wish to return to their country of origin. IOM staff will guide you throughout the process to feel accompanied and well advised on each step.

Please find below the available assistance:

Remember THEY ARE FREE!

- We can purchase your airline tickets to your home country. If necessary, we can also guide you to issue a new travel document;
- To meet your first needs, we will support you with a financial aid of 450 €;
- For nationals from Honduras and Senegal, we can provide technical, economic and monitoring assistance for the start-up of a small business in the country of origin.

If you decide to apply to the project, these are the documents you need to send us to the email iommadridops@iom.int:

1. Application form duly completed (Talk with the Social Worker).
2. Social Report of the applicant (Talk with the Social Worker).
3. Copy of the passport, travel document or identity card.
